

Calling the untrained, unintentional & unseen creators of Greater Britain.

Are you a marginal or self-taught artist? Have you received a divine calling to depict strange new worlds? Are you an artist with a disability, whose creativity has been undeservedly overlooked? Or a collector with a cache of anonymous doodlings?

If this sounds like you, The Museum of Everything cordially invites you to submit a work on paper (or anything small & light) to Exhibition #2, to be held on May 14th, 15th & 16th 2010 as part of No Soul for Sale at London's Tate Modern.

Exhibition #2 is open to all non-professional, non-traditional and non-exhibited artists, living or long-gone. To enter, simply turn up at Tate Modern with your artwork where it will be assessed by our esteemed Board of Trustees. Successful works will be displayed in the Turbine Hall and published in a book of the exhibition.*

Reveal your creativity at Tate Modern with The Museum of Everything.

The Museum of Everything Exhibition #2

where

No Soul for Sale at Tate Modern Bankside, London SE1 9TG

when

Friday & Saturday
14th & 15th May 2010
10:00am until midnight

Sunday
16th May 2010
10:00am until 6:00pm

what

for details & guidance
www.musevery.com

to ask us a question
everytate@gmail.com